

Watch Me Grow 2010 Summer Program Special Guest Visitor Guide & Activities

Tuesday, June 29, 2010- Blue Sky Puppet Theater presents, “Water, Water Everywhere” Puppet Show

Blue Sky Puppet Theatre is a professional touring children's/family theatre located in the Baltimore/Washington area. Since 1980 it has been exclusively a theatre for young audience currently performing 1300 shows a year. WMG will enjoy the entertaining performance of “Water, Water Everywhere.” Visit their website at, www.blueskypuppets.com

Friday, July 9, 2010- Visit from the Clarksburg Fire Department

The children will be visit by their friends from the local fire department. The firefighters will talk to the children about fire safety, provide a tour of the fire truck and demonstrate how high their fire latter will go!

Friday, July 16, 2010- St. Jude’s Trike-a-Thon

The program is a week-long activity involving young children, their parents and teachers. Trike-A-Thon introduces key concepts of riding safety, and concludes with a fun-filled event where the participants bring their riding toys from home and show off the skills they have learned. In addition to learning how to stay safe, the children also learn about helping others through gaining sponsorships from friends and family for St. Jude. Visit their website as, www.mytrikeathon.org

Wednesday, July 21, 2010 – Echoes of Nature presents, “Animals of Kung Foo”

Kung Fu and other martial art masters observed nature for inspirations of the katas or forms for their disciplines. The children will meet some animal ambassadors whose moves inspired the katas of the martial arts, learn some of the moves named after these animals and discover how these animals survive in their wet world. What would you need to live in their world? Visit their website at, www.echoesofnature.net

Thursday, July 29, 2010- Baltimore Zoomobile presents, “Waddle & Wiggle”

EdZOOcation on the road! The ZOOMobile will bring educational, entertaining and interactive programs featuring live animals to Watch Me Grow. The presentation, “Waddle & Wiggle,” will focus on the movement of various animals including the tortoise. Visit their website at, www.marylandzoo.org.

Monday, August 2, 2010- Echoes of Nature presents, "Beat the Heat"

How do you "beat the heat" of summer? Animals also have ways to beat the summer heat. The children will meet some live animals and discover how these animal ambassadors and others keep cool. Visit their website at, www.echoesofnature.net

Tuesday, August 10, 2010- Mike the Magician, "Seeing is Believing"

A startling hilarious show that proves magic can be created by all of us. Using music, comedy and magic, master magician Michael Chamberlin features dazzling contemporary takes on some of magic's most legendary effects along with his hilarious trademark audience participation routines. The show provides fast-paced, original and spellbinding sorcery for all ages. Visit his website at, <http://www.mikecmagic.com>.

Friday, August 20, 2010- A visit from McGruff the Crime Dog & Local Police

Safety officials from the local police department will educate the children on Stranger Danger Awareness and remind the children to "Never talk to Strangers." The children will also receive a special guest visit from McGruff the Crime Dog- "Take a Bite Out of Crime." Visit McGruff's website at, <http://www.mcgruff.org/>

Wednesday, August 25, 2010- BJ & Cody present, "Jammin' In The Islands"

When we're "Jammin' In The Islands" Cody & Bj start the surfing fun while singing "Hangin' Ten". Trained volunteers soon join in! Everybody has fun dancing to "Let's Twist Again". A beach party without limbo? Not here. The party ends with a band of special guests. Visit their website at, <http://www.codybj.com/codybjsbio.html>