Family Services, Inc. Launches New Website Today

(Gaithersburg, MD) -- Family Services, Inc. (FSI), established in 1908 and dedicated to promoting the resilience, recovery and independence of individuals and families across the life span, today debuted the re-design of its enhanced website www.fs-inc.org. The re-launch includes a new home page that spotlights more of the organization's expanding programs and services throughout Maryland, specifically in Montgomery, Prince George's and Baltimore Counties, while also serving as a nexus to news, information, events, and services.

The new fs-inc.org is a powerful, user-friendly tool for anyone seeking more information and connection with Mental Health, Early Childhood, Substance Abuse, Community Support, School-Based and Victim and Domestic Violence services. The new website will provide ongoing awareness, education, fundraising/donations and offers enhanced navigation capabilities for visitors seeking services and/or additional resources.

"These changes will highlight the important work we do with individuals, children and our families throughout the State of Maryland," said Wendy Enderson, Director of Marketing and Communications for Family Services, Inc. "Our website is easier to navigate for those who need help and includes important information about all of our program areas. It also gives us an opportunity to highlight and thank our community partners, donors, volunteers and everyone who continues to actively support the work we do."

The new website includes updated features such search capabilities linking to multiple services provided by FSI, social media outlets, videos highlighting special initiatives and events, fundraising/donation links, and much more.

The Family Services, Inc. website was designed by SW Creatives, LLC located in Silver Spring, Maryland (www.swcreatives.com).

About Family Services, Inc.

Family Services, Inc., an affiliate of the Sheppard and Enoch Pratt Foundation, is the oldest private non-profit social service organization in Montgomery County, Maryland. Founded in 1908, FSI currently operates 32 distinct programs throughout Montgomery, Prince George's and Baltimore Counties and reaches over 25,000 people each year. FSI has extensive experience developing and implementing in-home and community-based services for individuals, children, adolescents and families. FSI provides prevention and early intervention programs which address family functioning and child development, operates Montgomery County's domestic violence shelter for women and their children, provides holistic psychiatric rehabilitation services to promote health and wellness to persons with persistent mental illness, and operates an adult medical day program. Programs are delivered by culturally and linguistically appropriate professionals and para-professional staff who represent 50 different countries and speak 42 languages.
